

Does Sinclair Broadcasting have a legal responsibility to present information on presidential candidates that is accurate, that is not propaganda , and that presents both sides?!! Does the FCC have a responsibility to promote a free press, the mechanism of democracy? Does the FCC have a responsibility when broadcasting conglomerates become monopolies, by allowing ownership of so many stations that are the most powerful of forums, promoting political candidates for their own gain?